ENDO EXCELLENCE PROGRAM

DACE Endo Excellence Program is a comprehensive program designed by the faculty from the University of Florida College of Dentistry and Academy of Advanced Endodontics, India (AAE - India) customized for Indian clinicians. A modular clinical and didactic program was designed to give the participants a high level of clinical confidence with active faculty interaction that will enable them to master Endodontic procedures.

This program includes didactic, hands-on & clinical components. The didactic component requires every participant to complete over 100 hours of classroom lectures and the clinical component requires all participants to complete and submit at least 10 cases prior to completion. There will be several hands-on sessions both in India and in the US that will help participants master the training. The program consists of a pre-requisite 'Basic Principles' course offered by Academy of Advanced Endodontics at no additional cost and two modules conducted by the University of Florida faculty. Module 1 will be held in India, with University of Florida faculty in attendance. And Module 2 will be held at the University of Florida, College of Dentistry campus. A Certificate of Completion will be presented after completion.
